DETAILED ACTION

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 reciting a liquid distillation system according to claim 1 further comprising wherein liquid may be preheated in the sump at start-up provides for ambiguity and confusion with regards to the further element being claimed.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 8,12-13,15 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB 1211236 or Huse (3,956,072) in view of Stewart (1,668,532) and Heinio et al (5,340,443) with or without Morris (5,772,850) or Satchwell (3,635,283).

The above references to GB, Huse, Stewart and Heinio are applied for the same combined reasons as set forth at pages 3 and 4 of the previous Office Action.

Heino renders obvious the evaporative condenser comprising a plurality of parallel core evaporator tubes, each tube having a first open end in communication with a sump and a second open end in communication with a head chamber as claimed in claim 1, section b). See the tubes 20, 22, basins 11, 12 and the upper edge with support 14 in Figs. 1 and 2 of the Heinio reference. Satchwell discloses basically similar structural elements as shown in Heino. Note the modular heat exchanger having a core of a plurality of individual core element (col. 1, lines 4-27). Morris shows in Fig. 2 an apparatus with parallel tubes. To incorporate Morris or Satchwell device to the apparatus of GB ' 236 or Huse would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art in order to solve the problem inherent in the prior art configuration. See e.g., col.1, lines 8-19 of the Satchwell's reference.

Claims 18-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 25-32, 36, 49 and 53 are allowed.

Applicants' arguments filed July 10, 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Contrary to applicants' contention, the claimed "evaporative condenser comprising a plurality of parallel core evaporator tubes, each tube having a first open end in communication with a sump and a second open end in communication with a head chamber” is not an unobvious subject matter nor is it evidence of criticality in the art as taught by Heinio, Morris or Satchwell, discussed supra.

Thus, in the absence of anything which may be “new” or “unexpected result.” a prima facie case of obviousness has been reasonably established by the art and has not been rebutted. Unexpected results must be established by factual evidence. Mere arguments or conclusory statements in the specification, applicants’ amendments, or the Brief do not suffice. In re Linder, 457 F.2d 506, 508, 173 USPQ 356, 358 (CCPA 1872). In re Wood, 582, F.2d 638, 642, 199 USPQ 137, 140 (CCPA 1978).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Uehara discloses an evaporator with parallel tubes.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
